OF COUNSEL

Suzanne M. McVicker

EXPERIENCE

Suzanne joined Karnopp Petersen's Estate Planning Department in February 2014. In addition to wills, trusts, estates, probate, and estate and gift tax return preparation, Suzanne's practice encompasses business, and charitable, tax planning and implementation. Suzanne enjoys working collaboratively with accountants, financial planners, and other trusted advisors to create and implement cohesive estate plans for her clients.

While attending Lewis and Clark Law School, Suzanne clerked in the in-house counsel department of a large Portland real estate investment company and advised low-income taxpayers at the law school's legal clinic. Prior to joining Karnopp Petersen, Suzanne spent six years with Shaftel Law Offices, PC, in Anchorage, Alaska advising trustees and personal representatives of medium to large estates.

PROFESSIONAL AND COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES

Family is important to Suzanne and she is actively involved with her children's school. She is a classroom volunteer and has also had the pleasure of serving as Principal of the Day.
